Finance Guide during Covid-19

Covid -19 has shaken the entire world economy and our households too aren't spared by it. In these trying times when there is uncertainty about almost everything; how to manage finances may be a daunting question arising into the minds of all. Here is a guide that will help us all to manage our finances better in these trying times. Extremely plummeting markets and volatility have made it very difficult to tap the markets for investors and decide on where to invest their money.

- Don't Panic
- Avoid panic selling
- Hedge your investments
- Keep a check on spending habits
- Don't avoid your monthly Emi's or Credit Card payments

TESTIMONIALS

It's been more than a year now to my campus placement and the start of my professional journey in HDFC LTD. Life has not been the same outside the walls of college. Time to reflect on oneself and time to spend on oneself. This takes me back to the various self-development and management sessions attended at TIMSR. TIMSR has always guided us to be leaders and not just managers. The institute has always prioritized self-development equally as far as technical knowledge goes. That's where our perspectives to look at situations started taking positive turns. Rather than seeing at problems as roadblocks, we or rather I at least have taken them as opportunities.

TIMSR will always have my deepest sense of gratitude for helping me be a better leader; imbibing such values and helping me grow as an individual both personally and professionally. Always a Timsrite

My experience in TIMSR was marvellous wherein I learnt many new concepts and got a stage to accomplish it and also helped me to evolve personally and professionally.

TIMSR provides a unique platform in which you assess and enhance your skill sets which is required in this vibrant environment. Another best thing which TIMSR empowered is Mindfulness which helps to leave in present and move forward towards your mission step by step

Sagar Parmar (PGDM Marketing 18-20)

TIMSR has been a great learning experience. It not only concentrates on academics but also on extra-curricular & co curricular activities, to strengthen the learnings of classroom. The teachings are not only restricted to classrooms but also on outdoor learning. TIMSR has helped me to immerse has better personality.

Nishi Garodia (PGDM Marketing 18-20)

The journey at TIMSR has been similar to the famous proverb "Every cloud has a silver lining",

I had evolved and enshrined from Day 1 till my placement. TIMSR provided various opportunities to showcase my skillset and knowledge via Conclaves, Cultural Fest, Conferences, etc. I was blessed to be the Fest Co-ordinator for our annual cultural fest "Urja", where I explored my management skills and mindful leadership attributes. Along with this TIMSR also encouraged us with the Fintech Lab, where we grasped knowledge about Blockchain and Bit coins that always excited me.
